

FEAR

ERIC KIM

FEAR IS NOTHING TO US.

What do we really fear? Death and pain, and the feeling of pain PRECEDING death. Once we conquer the fear of pain, and we actually learn that pain is the great stimulus to life, and the great joy of life, what do we really got to be afraid of?

2

NO AFTERLIFE

Let us assume there is no afterlife. How would we proceed life?

Memento mori – remember that you MUST die. Memento vivere – remember that you must live.

THE ROAD AHEAD.

What is the most exciting thing? The road ahead. What you have YET experienced and seen!

